

Defective Workmanship Extension

Notwithstanding Exclusion 4.8 and 4.18, Chubb agrees to indemnify the Insured for Personal Injury or Property Damage whilst in New Zealand for liability for the costs of rectifying defective or faulty workmanship including materials, consequent upon accidental damage to property on which you are working, where the damage is caused by your faulty workmanship; providing that:

- a) the faulty workmanship is done or undertaken by any of the persons insured during the period of insurance; and
- b) a sub limit of NZD100,000 shall apply to this Extension subject to an deductible of $1,000 for each occurrence

Workmanship means work done in the process of manufacturing, constructing, erecting installing, servicing, repairing or treating property.

In all other respects this Policy remains unaltered.
